FUNDING SOURCE:

The base budget for NCPDF is derived by the College of Education and San Diego County Office of Education membership fee of $28,888 respectively, as well as membership fees from districts based on the rate of ($.90 per ADA). The San Diego County Office of Education serves as the fiscal agent for the federation. The COE San Marcos houses the NCPDF director and support staff. The revenue from the dues structure resulting in the base working budget of $227,522 for the 2001-2002 school year.

Additional monies are brought into the federation budget through university and school district grants for which NCPDF serves as the grant administrator and LEA. These combined grants brought in an approximate $3 million dollars during the 2001-02 school year.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE:

Steering Committee meets monthly and is comprised of: a representative from each school district, Eileen Oliver, the assistant dean of CSUSM College of Education, Tony spears Director, director of Instructional Support Services from SDCOE, and Melinda Bossenmeyer, the NCPDF Director.

GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE:

Steering Committee advises on program needs monthly and the NCPDF Director implements day-to-day operations of the NCPDF center and programs. Dr. Steve Lilly, Dean COE and Dr. Nancy Giberson, Asst. Superintendent from SDCOE evaluate the NCPDF Director annually.

ACCOUNTABILITY:

NCPDF is a volunteer membership organization. Each year member districts make decisions on continuing participation. The steering committee assesses program needs in accordance with local, state, and federal initiatives using qualitative and quantitative data, which includes information from focus and discussion groups, interviews with teachers and administrators and surveys.

DEMOGRAPHICS:

27 local school districts include both rural and suburban districts in the North County San Diego area.
